

Could you survive a month in poverty?

Friday

April 3, 2020
Poverty Simulation Event
Johnsonburg Fire Hall
10am-2pm

ACT 48
credits & social work CEU's will be offered

The poverty simulation experience is designed to help participants begin to understand what it might be like to live in a typical low-income family trying to survive from month to month. It is a simulation, not a game. The object is to sensitize participants to the realities faced by low-income people.

LIMITED SEATING — RSVP by MARCH 6, 2020

---The event is limited to 72 participants---

Registration information will be made available at www.elkcountyfoundation.org
The poverty simulation event is being hosted by the Community Education Center and Elk County Community Foundation, with support from Northern Tier Community Action Corporation and Region 2 Early Learning Resource Center.
For registration information, please call 834.2125.

This program is offered for 2.5 hours of social work continuing education through co-sponsorship of the University of Pittsburgh's School of Social Work, a Council on Social Work Education-accredited school and, therefore, a PA pre-approved provider of social work continuing education. These credit hours satisfy requirements for LSW/LCSW, LPC and LMFT biennial license renewal. For information on social work continuing education call (412)624-3711. For CEU's there is an additional processing fee of $10.00 due the day of the event.
